INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Board of Directors
Workman Securities Corporation
Eden Prairie, Minnesota

We have audited the accompanying statements of financial condition of Workman Securities Corporation as of December 31, 2005 and 2004 and the related statements of income, changes in stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the years then ended that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatements. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Workman Securities Corporation at December 31, 2005 and 2004 and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For The Years Ended
December 31, 2005 and 2004

1. Nature of Business

Workman Securities Corporation is registered as a broker-dealer under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. As of December 31, 2005, the company is a registered broker-dealer in all 50 states and the District of Columbia.

The majority of the Company's commission revenue is earned from variable annuity and mutual fund investments and transfers executed on behalf of its customers. The Company also earns commissions on various life insurance products, universal life and variable life insurance policies, and securities transactions.

2. Significant Accounting Policies

Cash and Cash Equivalents:

The Company includes money market funds in the category of cash as presented in the cash flow statement.

Commissions Receivable:

Receivable from clearing organization primarily represents accruals for commission amounts due from various mutual fund sponsors and life insurance companies. It is the Company's policy to use the reserve method to write off uncollectible accounts. Management anticipates no substantial losses from present receivable balances. Therefore, no provision has been made for doubtful accounts at December 31, 2005 and 2004.

Depreciation:

Office equipment is stated at cost. Repairs and maintenance are expensed as incurred. The company provides for depreciation using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets. Accelerated methods of depreciation are used for income tax purposes. The estimated useful lives of the assets are three to five years.

The Company reviews its property and equipment for impairment whenever events indicate that the carrying amount of the asset may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recorded when the sum of the future cash flows is less than the carrying amount of the asset. The amount of the loss is determined by comparing the fair market values of the assets to the carrying amount of the assets.

Investments:

The Company's investments are reported at cost, which approximates market value.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For The Years Ended
December 31, 2005 and 2004

Income Taxes:

The Company is an S corporation for income tax purposes. As such, the Company is not subject to federal and state income taxes. The taxable income or loss resulting from operations, along with various tax credits, are reported by the stockholders on their federal and state individual income tax returns.

Revenue Recognition:

Commission revenue and related expenses for mutual fund and securities transactions and variable annuity contract purchases are recorded on a trade-date basis. Commission revenue and related expenses for life insurance policies are recorded when the insurance company approves the policy.

Use of Estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

3. Net Capital Requirements

The Company, as a registered broker and dealer in securities, is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission's Uniform Net Capital Rule (rule 15c3-1).

Under the computation provided by the Uniform Net Capital Rule and effective June 1, 2002, the Company is required to maintain net capital equal to the greater of $25,000 or 6-2/3% of aggregate indebtedness. At December 31, 2005 and 2004, the Company had net capital, as computed under the rule, of $245,731 and $142,506 respectively.

4. Exemption – SEC Rule 15c3-3

The Company is exempt from Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission as all customer transactions are cleared through another broker/dealer on a fully disclosed basis. The Company, therefore, is not required to make the periodic computation of reserve requirements for the benefit of customers.

As part of our examination we ascertained the Company was in compliance with the exemptive provisions of SEC Rule 15c3-3 as of December 31, 2005. No facts came to our attention indicating that the firm had not complied with the conditions of the exemption to Rule 15c3-3 since the last audit.

For The Years Ended
December 31, 2005 and 2004

5. SIPC Supplemental Report

The requirements for filing an SIPC Supplemental Report is not applicable, since SIPC has suspended assessments based on net operating revenue.

6. Related Party Transactions

BDMA, Inc. owns 100% of the outstanding stock of the Company. The Company entered into a management agreement with BDMA, Inc. on January 1, 2002. The agreement provided BDMA, Inc. the right to manage the Company and the right to receive the profits generated by the Company. The agreement was amended January 1, 2005 to include annual office rent of $76,985 and equipment rental of $33,053 commencing January 1, 2005.

Board of Directors
Workman Securities Corporation
Eden Prairie, Minnesota

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Workman Securities Corporation as of and for the year ended December 31, 2005, and have issued our report thereon dated February 3, 2006. Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The following information is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON ### INTERNAL CONTROL

Board of Directors
Workman Securities Corporation
Eden Prairie, Minnesota

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Workman Securities Corporation for the year ended December 31, 2005, we considered its internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on internal control.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons.
2. Recordation of difference required by rule 17a-13.
3. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

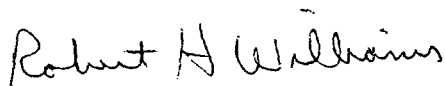

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that error or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2005, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the SEC, and other regulatory agencies that rely on rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
